

A Doll's House

By Henrik Ibsen

Directed by Susan Conte

Sunday Feb 28th at 6.00pm; Monday Mar 1st to Saturday Mar 6th, 2010 at 7.45pm

An Amateur Theatre production by Teddington Theatre Club

Coward Studio, Hampton Hill Playhouse, 90 High Street, Hampton Hill, TW12 1NY

A Doll's House looks at marriage through the eyes of Nora. Her girlish enjoyment of life appears to be stifled by the strict financial and social conventions of nineteenth century Norway and a husband who intends to think for them both. Using some bold time shifts, this exciting new studio production questions Nora's decisions and explores their meaning within the context of the 1880's as well as within a more contemporary setting. Not to be missed by all those interested in a new approach to this most famous of Ibsen's plays and the changing role of women over time.
